

CHRIS RYNNING

LEADERSHIP SALON

Creating the future

How will the Chinese financial markets influence global leadership decisions?

This evening's talk will have a focus on financial decision making with an international perspective from China. Our distinguished guest and presenter this evening will be Mr. Chris Rynning. As always, BI's associate dean Jan Ketil Arnulf will be hosting the evening and moderating discussions.

All interested people in our network are welcome.

MARCH 10
18:30 - 19:00: Registration

Roof 325 Restaurant
5/F, 325 Nanjing Xi Lu,
near Huangpi Bei Lu, 南京西路325号5楼,
近黄陂北路
RMB: 50,-

Click here to register

ABOUT CHRIS RYNNING

Chris Rynning is a Beijing-based international investor who is engaged in a series of companies and funds investing in China-related business.

Until recently, one of his most important roles was CEO of Origo Partners PLC. Origo is a private equity investment company, focused exclusively on growth opportunities created by the urbanization and industrialization of China. Origo is listed on the London Stock Exchange and its investment strategy is focused on the natural resources and renewable energy/clean-tech sectors. Origo generally prefers Chinese profitable expansion-stage companies.

Chris has been based in Beijing since 1997 and has among others had the following roles: Founder and Managing Partner of Ascend Ventures, Managing Partner of MINT, (PwC Consulting's joint venture investment arm in China), Regional Director of Asia with Elkem, an Oslo and Frankfurt listed company. In total, Chris has over 15 years of emerging and established market experience, gained in China, India, Russia, Japan, France and the US.

A graduate of ESSEC in Paris, Chris holds an MBA with a specialization in Finance from the University of Chicago, Graduate School of Business.

The coming MBA class starts on May 29th, 2015

- Ranked globally as the no. 8 part-time MBA program

FINANCIAL TIMES